Any written demand made by a member for a Member Meeting List must contain an acknowledgment by the member that the demand is made in good faith; that the Member Meeting List will not be used to solicit money or property, unless such money or property is to be used to solicit member votes at a member meeting, e.g., campaign expenses for an initiative or trustee position; and that the Member Meeting List shall not be used for any commercial purpose, or sold, transferred or purchased by any other person.
Upon proper written demand, a member, or member’s designated agent or attorney, may inspect and copy the Member Meeting List at the Member’s expense. Any member making proper demand for the Member Meeting List may also request that the Cooperative copy the list for the member, in which event the Cooperative may charge reasonable costs for the time, labor and expense required to copy and provide the Member Meeting List to the member.

ARTICLE IV

A trustee is not acting in good faith if the trustee has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance on the advice of officer and other persons otherwise permitted.

If the trustee complies with this bylaw, then the trustee is not liable to the Cooperative, any member, or any other individual or entity for action taken, or not taken, as a trustee. This immunity from suit is removed when the conduct of the trustee amount to willful wanton, or gross negligence.

SECTION 4.02 Qualifications

No person shall be eligible to become or remain a trustee of the Cooperative who is a close relative of an incumbent trustee or of an employee of the Cooperative, or is not a member in good standing of the Cooperative and receiving service therefrom at his primary residential abode. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions of this Section dealing with close relationships, no incumbent trustee shall lose eligibility to remain a trustee or to be re-elected as a trustee if he becomes a close relative of another incumbent trustee or of a Cooperative employee because of a marriage to which he was not a party. Upon establishment of the fact that a nominee for trustee lacks eligibility under this Section or as may be provided elsewhere in these By-laws, such nominee shall be disqualified. Upon the establishment of the fact that any person being considered for, or already holding, trusteeship or other position of trust in the Cooperative lacks eligibility under this Section, it shall be the duty of the Board of Trustees to withhold such position from such person, or to cause him to be removed therefrom, as the case may be. Nothing contained in this Section shall, or shall be construed to, affect in any manner whatsoever the validity of any action taken at any meeting of the Board of Trustees, unless such action is taken with respect to a matter which is affected by the provisions of this Section and in which one or more of the trustees have an interest adverse to that of the Cooperative.

SECTION 4.03  Election

At each annual meeting of the members, trustees shall be elected by secret written ballot or approved voting apparatus by the members and, from among those members who are natural persons, PROVIDED, that, when, the number of nominees does not exceed the number of trustees to be elected from a particular Trustee District, and if there is no objection, secret written balloting or approved voting apparatus may be dispensed with in respect of that particular election and voting may be conducted in any other proper manner. Trustees shall be elected by a plurality of the votes cast unless the members in advance of any balloting resolve that a majority of the votes cast shall be required to elect.

Trustees shall be so nominated and elected such that one trustee from or with respect to each of Trustee Districts Nos. one, two and three (I, II, III) shall be elected for three-year terms at the next succeeding annual member meeting; and one trustee from or with respect to each of Trustee Districts Nos. one, two and three (I, II, III) shall be elected for three-year terms at the next succeeding annual member meeting, and so forth, PROVIDED, that the terms of no two trustees from the same Trustee District shall coincide. Upon their election, trustees shall, subject to the provisions of these By-laws with respect to the removal of trustees, serve until the annual meeting of the members of the third year hence at which time their terms expire or until their successors shall have been elected and shall have qualified. If for any reason an election of trustees shall not be held at an annual meeting of the members duly fixed and called pursuant to these By-laws, such election may be held at a subsequently held special meeting or the next annual meeting of the members. Failure of an election for a given year shall allow the incumbents whose trusteehips would have been voted on to hold over only until the next member meeting at which a quorum is present, PROVIDED, that not more than three (3) trustees can be elected in any year and in the event of any hold-over period, the election of subsequent trustees shall  be extended in a like manner for like periods and in regular and customary sequence thereafter.

It is recognized that under the previous By-laws of the Cooperative, that the geographical areas and representation of the trustees were divided generally into the same classifications ans Districts as hereinafter set forth. Therefore, to provide a smooth transition in regard to the terms of the Trustees elected, those trustees elected and serving under the previous By-laws shall continue to serve for the full three-year term for which they were elected; beginning in the year 1990, those trustees whose terms will expire under the previous By-laws, shall stand for election under these By-laws and so forth.

SECTION 4.07 Voting for Trustees; Validity of Board Action

In the election of trustees, each member shall be entitled to cast the number of votes (one vote for each position but not cumulatively) which corresponds to the total number of trustees to be elected, but no member may vote for more nominees than the number of trustees that are to be elected from or with respect to any particular trustee District. Ballots marked in violation of the foregoing restriction with respect to one or more Trustee Districts shall be invalid and shall not be counted with respect to such District or Districts. SECTION 9.01 Interest or Dividends on Capital Prohibited
The Cooperative shall at all times be operated on a Cooperative non-profit basis for the mutual benefit of its patrons. No interest or dividends shall be paid or payable by the Cooperative on any capital furnished by its patrons.

SECTION 9.02 Patronage Capital in Connection with Furnishing Electric Energy

In the furnishing of electric energy the Cooperative's operations shall be so conducted that all patrons will, through their patronage, furnish capital for the Cooperative. In order to induce patronage and to assure that the Cooperative will operate on a non-profit basis, the Cooperative is obligated to account on a patronage basis to all its patrons for all amounts received and receivable from the furnishing of electric energy in excess of operating costs and expenses properly chargeable against the furnishing of electric energy. All such amounts in excess of operating costs and expenses at the moment of receipt by the Cooperative are received with the understanding that they are furnished by the patrons as capital. The Cooperative is obligated to pay by credits to a capital account for each patron all such amounts in excess of operating costs and expenses. The books and records of the Cooperative shall be set up and kept in such a manner that at the end of each fiscal year the amount of capital, if any, so furnished by each patron is clearly reflected and credited in an appropriate record to the capital account of each patron, and the Cooperative shall, within a reasonable time after the close of the fiscal year, notify each patron of the amount of such excess and provide a clear explanation of how each patron may compute and determine for himself the specific amount of capital so credited to him. All such amounts credited to the capital account of any patron shall have the same status as though they have been paid to the patron in cash in pursuance of a legal obligation to do so and the patron had then furnished the Cooperative corresponding amounts for capital.

All other amounts received by the Cooperative from its operations in excess of costs and expenses shall, insofar as permitted by law, be used (a) to offset any losses incurred during the current or any prior fiscal year and (b) to the extent not needed for that purpose, allocated to its patrons on a patronage basis, and any amount so allocated shall be included as a part of the capital credited to the accounts of patrons, as herein provided.

In the event of dissolution or liquidation of the Cooperative, after all outstanding indebtedness of the Cooperative shall have been paid, outstanding capital credits shall be retired without priority on a pro rata basis before any payments are made on account of property rights of members, PROVIDED, that insofar as gains may at that time be realized from the sale of any appreciated asset, such gains shall be distributed to all persons who were patrons during the period the asset was owned by the Cooperative in proportion to the amount of business done by such patrons during that period, insofar as is practicable, as determined by the Board of Trustees.
before any payments are made on account of property rights of members. If, at any time prior to dissolution or liquidation, the Board of Trustees shall determine that the financial condition of the Cooperative will not be impaired thereby, the capital then credited to patrons' accounts may be retired in full or in part. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these By-laws, the Board shall determine the method of allocation, basis, priority and order of retirement, if any, for all amounts furnished as patronage capital. The Board of Trustees shall have the power to adopt rules providing for the separate requirement of that portion ("power supply or other service or supply portion") of capital credited to the accounts of patrons which corresponds to capital credited to the account of the Cooperative by an organization furnishing power supply or any other service or supply to the Cooperative. Such rules shall: (a) establish a method for determining the portion of such capital credited to each patron for each applicable fiscal year, (b) provide for separate identification on the Cooperative's books of such portions of capital credited to the Cooperative's patron, (c) provide for appropriate notifications to patrons with respect to such portions of capital credited to their accounts and (d) preclude a general retirement of such portions of capital credited to patrons for any fiscal year prior to the general retirement of other capital credited to patrons for the same year or of any capital credited to patrons for any prior fiscal year.

Capital credited to the account of each patron shall be assignable only on the books of the Cooperative pursuant to written instructions from the assignor and only to successors in interest or successors in occupancy in all or a part of such patron's premises served by the Cooperative, unless the Board of Trustees, acting under policies of general application, shall determine otherwise.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of these By-laws, the Board of Trustees shall at its discretion have the power at any time upon the death of any patron who was a natural person, (or, if as so provided for in the preceding paragraph, upon the death of an assignee of the capital credits of a patron, which assignee was a natural person), if the legal representatives of his estate shall request in writing that the capital so credited or assigned, as the case may be, be retired prior to the time such capital would otherwise be retired upon the provisions of the By-laws, to retire such capital immediately upon such terms and conditions as the Board of Trustees, acting under policies of general application to situations of like kind, and such legal representatives, shall agree upon,
PROVIDED, however, that the financial condition of the Cooperative will not be impaired thereby.

The Cooperative, before retiring any capital credited to any patron's account, shall deduct therefrom any amount owing by such patron to the Cooperative, together with interest thereon at the South Carolina legal rate on judgments in effect when such amount became overdue, compounded annually.

The patrons of the Cooperative, by dealing with the Cooperative, acknowledge that the terms and provisions of the Articles of Incorporation and By-laws shall constitute and be a contract between the Cooperative and each patron, and both the Cooperative and the patrons are bound by such contract, as fully as though each patron had individually signed a separate instrument containing such terms and provisions. The provisions of this Article of the By-laws shall be called to the attention of each patron of the Cooperative by posting in a conspicuous place in the Cooperative's offices.
ARTICLE X
WAIVER OF NOTICE

SECTION 10.01 Waiver of Notice

Any member or trustee may waive, in writing, any notice of meetings required to be given by these By-laws or any notice that may otherwise be legally required, either before or after such notice is required to be given.

(b) Supplementary to the first sentence of the foregoing subsection (a) and any other applicable provisions of law or these By-laws, no sale, lease, lease-sale, exchange, transfer or other disposition of all or substantially all of the Cooperative's properties and assets shall be authorized except in conformity with the following:

(1) If the Board of Trustees looks with favor upon any proposal for such sale, lease, lease-sale, exchange, transfer or other disposition, it shall first appoint three (3) independent, non-affiliated appraisers, expert in such matters, to render their individual opinions as to the value of the Cooperative with respect to such a sale, lease, lease-sale, exchange, transfer or other disposition and as to any other terms and conditions which should be considered.

(2) If the Board of Trustees, after receiving such appraisals (and other terms and conditions which are submitted, if any), determines that the proposal should be submitted for consideration by the members, it shall first give Saluda River Electric Cooperative, Inc., and any compact member cooperatives of Saluda River Electric Cooperative, Inc. and National Rural Utility Cooperative Finance Cooperation (CFC) an opportunity to submit competing proposals. Such opportunity shall be in the form of a written notice to such parties, which notice shall be attached to a copy of the proposal which the Cooperative has already received and copies of the respective reports of the three (3) appraisers. Such parties shall be given not less than thirty (30) days during which to submit competing proposals, and the actual minimum period within which proposals are to be submitted shall be stated in the written notice given to them.

(3) If the Board then determines that favorable consideration should be given to the initial or any subsequent proposal which has been submitted to it, it shall adopt a resolution recommending the sale and directing the submission of the proposal to a vote of the members at a duly held member meeting, and shall notify the members of such proposal(s) not less than sixty (60) days before noticing a special meeting of the members thereon or, if such be the case, the next annual member meeting, expressing in detail each of any such proposals. The Board shall call the special meeting of the members for consideration thereof and action thereon, which meeting shall be held not less than twenty five (25) days after the giving of notice thereof to the members, PROVIDED, that consideration and action by the members may be given at the next annual member meeting if the Board so determines and if such annual meeting is held not less than twenty five (25) days after the giving of notice of such meeting.

(4) Any three hundred (300) or more members, by so petitioning the Board not less than twenty (20) days prior to the date of such special or annual meeting, may cause the Cooperative, with the costs to be borne by the Cooperative, to mail all members any opposing or alternative position which they may have to the proposals that have been submitted or any recommendations that the Board has made.

The provisions of this subsection (b) shall not apply to a sale, lease, lease-sale, exchange, transfer or other disposition to one or more other electric cooperatives or commitment to make such disposition if the substantive or actual legal effect thereof is to merge or consolidate in whole or in part, with such other one or more electric cooperatives.

SECTION 11.02 Distribution of Surplus Assets on Dissolution

HOWEVER, that, if in the judgement of the Board the amount of such surplus is too small to justify the expense of making such distribution, the Board may, in lieu thereof, donate, or provide for the donation of, such surplus to one or more non-profit charitable or educational organizations that are exempt from Federal income taxation.
